Dear Brother and Sister Sargent:

It was so considerate of you to write your kind note received here on February 9. I was happy to do what little I did to make your day at Erin Street more worth while. I was happy that Brother Love asked me to contribute something to the day.

I do feel strongly that the Erin Street congregation has a tremendous potential and a great immediate future. My prayers are with you and the entire congregation as you face this challenging new year.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro Chalk,

Would like you to know how much we appreciated
the time ^{& effort} you spent in making the tape for our Workshop program. I'm sure as a result we shall all try for more concentrated effort to reach our goal.

Sincerely,

Bro & Sisk Sargent
